

Hint of Laos Move by US

More Evidence of Red Support Through Laos

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Johnson and his top policymakers today reviewed "accumulating evidence" of increased support from Communist North Viet Nam to Red guerrilla forces in the south through the jungle trails of Laos, a White House statement reported.

Johnson instructed Ambassador Maxwell D. Taylor "to consult urgently with the South Vietnamese government as to measures that should be taken to improve the situation in all its aspects," the statement said.

The president also reaffirmed basic U.S. policy of "providing all possible and useful assistance to the South Vietnamese people and government in their struggle to defeat the externally supported insurgency and aggression being conducted against them," it was announced.

The reference to the flow of Red supplies from North Viet Nam to the south appeared to bear out earlier speculation that the government here was considering action against the Communist supply lines in the mountainous jungles of Laos.

But the statement stopped short of disclosing any policy decision by Johnson other than to say that he instructed Taylor to consult with the South Vietnamese government.

The statement followed a 2½-hour session at the White House with Johnson's chief diplomatic and military advisers.

Press secretary George Reedy reported that Taylor will be in Washington for two or three days more before returning to his post in Saigon. Johnson expects to meet with Taylor at least once again before he leaves Washington, Reedy said.

Taylor, former chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff and now envoy to Saigon, has been conferring with top men in the government since he returned here on Thanksgiving Day.

Need $1.5 Million To Transport Church

NEW YORK (AP) — Restoration of a 12th century bombed-out English church on the campus of Westminster College at Fulton, Mo., will require $1.5 million, Gov. John Dalton of Missouri said Monday.

His state, the governor told supporters of the project here, will raise a half million of that, and count on the remainder from the New York-Washington area and elsewhere.

The project to tranship the St. Mary the Virgin of Aldermanbury Church stone by stone from England to Missouri and rebuild it at Fulton is to be done in commemoration of Sir Winston Churchill's famous "Iron Curtain" speech on the campus in 1946.

Bid to Stall UN Crises

Big 4 Representatives Called to Meet By Thant

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP) — Secretary-General U Thant today called in representatives of the four big power and other key delegations in an effort to head off a U.S.-Soviet confrontation on U.N. finances in the General Assembly.

Thant's move came amid reports that the inaugural session of the 112-nation assembly might either be postponed temporarily or adjourned quickly after its scheduled opening at 3 p.m.

Behind-the-scenes diplomatic activity was intense as the opening hour approached without a solution of the deadlock which created one of the gravest crises ever faced by the world organization.

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP) — A meeting of Big Four diplomats with Secretary-General U. Thant failed today to produce a formula for heading off a U.S.-Soviet showdown in the General Assembly over peace-keeping assessments.

Key figures in a noon conference in the secretary-general's office were U.S. Delegate Adlai E. Stevenson, Soviet Delegate Nikolai T. Fedorenko, British Prime Minister of State Lord Caradon and French Delegate Roger Seydoux. Others were the retiring assembly president, Carlos Sosa-Rodriguez of Venezuela, and Ambassador Alex Quaison-Sackey of Ghana, who is slated to be elected president of the assembly's 19th session.

Thant was understood to be trying to pin down an agreement on just what could be done to forestall a confrontation later in the day on the Soviet Union's refusal to pay for U.N. peacekeeping operations.

"However, it also appears to be the considered opinion of many of our citizens that before the license is renewed that the Jefferson Television Co., should be willing to agree and to give some assurance that if and when it is renewed, that they will relocate their tower or take some other action that may be necessary that will eliminate the blacking out and interference to the operation of Channels 4 and 5 in the City of Sedalia.

"It is an established fact that during all of the time that Channel 6 is in operation, that Channel 5 in Kansas City, is completely blacked out in Sedalia and the claim is being made that there is considerable interference to the reception of Channel 4 in Sedalia.

"At our request, Mr. Robert Blasser of the Jefferson Television Co., is here tonight to discuss the problem of television reception in Sedalia, and at this time the chair will call upon Mr. Blasser to start the discussion," Mayor Studer concluded.

The mayor then pointed out that Mr. Brown (William F. Brown, attorney) and Mr. Durely (James E. Durely, attorney) were representing a group, and Mr. William H. Weldon, president of the Jefferson Television Corp., Jefferson City, was present. He then called on Weldon to speak for his organization.

Weldon took the floor and told the council and small audience that there was a misunderstanding between the council and his company over the meeting, and he was not prepared to talk regarding the subject which had been brought up at the meeting. He did state, however, that KMOS-TV was operating within the limits of rules and regulations of the FCC.

Mercenaries Rescue Scores of Hostages

Stanleyville Recaptured; Another American Slain

LEOPOLDVILLE, the Congo (AP) — White mercenaries have rescued from 155 to 160 rebel hostages in a cotton-growing region about 260 miles north of Stanleyville, a Belgian Embassy spokesman said today.

The report came as the rebels fought back in Stanleyville, the fallen insurgent capital seized a week ago. The airport was closed by rebel fire and most of the city was reported in rebel hands.

A fourth American missionary was reported slain by the rebels—William McChesney, 28, Phoenix, Ariz. His parents in Phoenix said they had received reports from his organization, the World Wide Evangelical Crusade, that he was killed at Wamba.

The report of the latest rescue operation said most of those rescued were Belgian.

There was no word from a fifth U.S. missionary who remained in rebel territory at Boepe. She is Mary Baker of Richmond, Va., whose unevaluated field mission is at Bala Cynwyd, Pa.

The hostages were freed at Dingila and Bambili in the northeastern Congo.

Some of the hostages have already been flown to Leopoldville.

Bambili and Dingila are in the heart of a cotton-growing region about 110 miles northeast of Buta, the mercenaries' operational base.

The embassy spokesmen said that the rescue reduced the number of Belgians still trapped by the rebels to about 250, although previous reports had said 500 to 1,000 whites remained after the Belgian parachute rescue mission ended last week. Most of these were said to be Belgians.

Congolese government troops, led by 30 white mercenaries, captured the town of Bunia, north of Stanleyville, where several hundred white hostages were believed held.

Police arrested the husband of the family about five hours later and obtained a warrant charging him with arson in connection with the fire.

Police said the husband, Kenneth A. Smith, 38-year-old truck driver, was booked for investigation of arson after he was arrested at a bar.

Court records showed that Smith's wife, Marian, had sworn out a warrant last week charging him with assault by threatening.

Police said they found a gasoline can in the house, and were told by a 15-year-old survivor that he had been pushed back into the burning house as he tried to escape. The boy escaped from another exit.

Mrs. Smith and four children survived. Deputy Fire Chief Roland Wett identified the dead as Janet, 1; Gary, 2; Kevin, 4; Annette, 6; Timothy, 7; Darlene, 8; and Vivian, 13.

Police said they were told by a neighbor of being awakened by the sound of breaking glass. The neighbor saw the fire and a man standing in front of the house, watching. Officers quoted the neighbor as saying the man just stood there as the children screamed.

Reedy 'Never Heard of Plan' To Fire Hoover

WASHINGTON (AP) — White House press secretary George E. Reedy says President Johnson "never heard of" a reported plan to replace FBI Director J. Edgar Hoover.

At two news briefings Monday, Reedy denied a report in the current issue of Newsweek magazine that Johnson had become a "disenchanted fan" of Hoover and "had decided by last week that he must find a new chief of the FBI."

Newsweek stuck to its story. Editor Osborn Elliott distributed this statement to White House newsmen:

"The report in this week's issue of Newsweek that 'the search is on' for a successor to Mr. J. Edgar Hoover came from a most reliable source within the White House, and Newsweek stands by the statement."

At his morning news briefing, Reedy told newsmen: "The President never heard of such a plan and never heard of such an idea."

When the subject came up again at an afternoon briefing, Reedy stood on the earlier statement.

Hoover, whose normal retirement at age 70 next month was waived last spring by Johnson, has been criticized by civil rights groups since he referred, in an interview, to Dr. Martin Luther King as "the most notorious liar in the country."

Ask Prayers For Pope On India Visit

VATICAN CITY (AP) — The world's half-billion Roman Catholics were asked today to pray for the success of Pope Paul VI's trip to India.

The Pope leaves before dawn Wednesday for the International Eucharistic Congress in Bombay. Plans were made for a special program of prayers in the Vatican and in Rome during the four days of his absence.

It will be the longest absence from Italy of any Pope since Pius VII returned in 1814 after five years in France as a prisoner of Napoleon.

The Vatican newspaper L'Osservatore Romano said Catholics everywhere were asked to pray that the Pope's mission to India may be realized.

The Eucharistic Congress is a gathering of Roman Catholic Church representatives from around the world. The Pope's trip is a personal gesture of friendship by its spiritual ruler to all the non-Christian peoples of Asia.

As such it underlines the modernization and renewal occupying the Church since the start of the Vatican Ecumenical Council two years ago.

The papal visit continued to generate controversy in predominantly Hindu India, where militant Hindus viewed it as the start of new Catholic conversion efforts.

Prime Minister Lal Bahadur Shastri was asked in Parliament Monday if he was aware of reports that the Catholic Church would use the visit and the Eucharistic Congress to increase its Indian membership, now about 6.5 million.

The prime minister said he did not think the two events were intended to increase conversions and he hoped that would not be the result.

New Carrier Sails On Acceptance Trials

NEWPORT NEWS, Va. (AP) — The nation's newest aircraft carrier, the USS America, heads seaward today for her preliminary acceptance trials.

The America drew rave reviews for her performance on her builder's trials, completed Nov. 20.

Said Capt. Lawrence Heyworth, prospective commanding officer of the ship: "I am fully confident that she is the best performing carrier built to date. She handles amazingly well with the precision of a small ship."

The America was christened last February.

The Weather

Considerable cloudiness and warmer tonight with chance of occasional light snow; snow possibly mixed with light freezing drizzle at times. Lows tonight upper 20s to low 30s. Wednesday partly cloudy to cloudy and a little warmer. Highs upper 30s to mid 40s.

The temperature Tuesday was 24 at 7 a.m., and 37 at noon. Low Monday night, 20.

The temperature one year ago today was high 53; low 39; two years ago, high 67; low 38; three years ago, high 59; low 27.

Power Supply Slipping

Red Space Probe To Mars Faltering

MOSCOW (AP) — A Soviet space probe has joined America's Mariner 4 on the long road to Mars, but the Russians announced today that their spacecraft is not working properly.

Zond 2 — Zond is Russian for probe — was launched Monday from a heavy satellite circling the earth, an official announcement said. Radio reports showed its power supply "is approximately 50 per cent below the expected," the announcement said, the Soviet news agency, said.

This indicated it might not be able to send back scientific information about Mars even if it succeeds in passing close to the planet.

Similar troubles silenced the last Soviet Mars probe, launched Nov. 1, 1962, while it was still more than six million miles from Mars. Zond 1, another Soviet space effort launched last April 2, apparently failed on an unannounced mission. Scientific observers thought Venus was its target.

The Americans, who have successfully probed Venus, launched Mariner 4 toward Mars on Saturday. It is reported working as planned at the beginning of a 7½-month trip to the reddish planet.

The American and Soviet launchings came close together because the position of the earth and Mars are favorable now for the complicated trajectory needed. Such favorable periods come only every few years.

Zond 2 was launched "in accordance with the program for space explorations," Tass said.

First a multistage rocket went into orbit and then the spacecraft was blasted away on its trip. This blast "imparted to the automatic station a velocity necessary for reaching the trajectory of the movement toward Mars," the announcement said. The same technique is used in launching deep U.S. space probes.

Tass did not give the spacecraft's weight. The last Soviet Mars probe weighed 1,969 pounds and measured 11 by 13 feet.

"According to preliminary data, the automatic station is moving along a trajectory close to the calculated one," the Tass announcement said.

It added that at 8 p.m. Monday Moscow time—noon EST—Zond 2 was nearly 25,000 miles from the earth.

In Closed-door Session

Quiz Reynolds In Baker Case

WASHINGTON (AP) — Star witness Don B. Reynolds opened new fields for inquiry in the Bobby Baker investigation today as he testified at a closed meeting of the Senate Rules Committee.

Hugh Alexander, committee counsel, told reporters Reynolds had agreed to disclose to the senators matters he had declined to discuss with their aides when they interviewed him Friday.

Alexander declined to discuss the nature of what he called the "extraneous matter" he said Reynolds was tossing into the committee's investigation of Baker and an alleged political payoff to the 1960 Kennedy-Johnson election campaign fund, main subject of the inquiry.

Alexander said the committee, as a result of these developments, had postponed scheduled start of public hearings at which Reynolds was tentatively scheduled to be the first witness.

Alexander said Reynolds was accompanied by Sen. John J. Williams, R-Del., and by his Washington lawyer, James Fitzgerald.

It was through Williams that Reynolds explored his allegations linking the names of Baker, a onetime influential Senate aide, and Democratic politician Matthew H. McCloskey of Philadelphia to an alleged $25,000 payoff or "kickback" to the Kennedy-Johnson fund.

Alexander, addressing reporters outside the committee's closed doors, said the committee "decided to go into the extraneous matters" with Reynolds behind closed doors, and decide later "whether to go into these matters in public session."

He acknowledged that the committee did take up Reynolds' allegations concerning the purported payoff from a $17-million government contract McCloskey received for construction of the Washington D.C. Stadium.

McCloskey, ambassador to Ireland in the Kennedy administration, has denied knowledge of any payoff. Baker, in earlier hearings, invoked his constitutional privilege under the Fifth Amendment to refuse to testify on matters that might incriminate him.

Prime Minister Lal Bahadur Shastri was asked in Parliament Monday if he was aware of reports that the Catholic Church would use the visit and the Eucharistic Congress to increase its Indian membership, now about 6.5 million.

TV 'Block Out' Dilemma Aired

A meeting, open to the public, was held in the City Council Chambers, Monday night for the purpose of discussing the problems of KMOS-TV blocking out KCMO-TV, Channel 5, in Sedalia. The meeting was called by Mayor L. L. Studer, at which time the entire council membership was present, along with representatives of the Jefferson Television Corp., owners of KMOS-TV; several lawyers representing advertisers; and people protesting Channel 6.

There were 23 persons present other than the mayor and council, including two from the news media. The others consisted of four representatives for KMOS-TV, four lawyers, one CATV representative, two radio dealers, three students and the rest citizens there to listen. There was evident lack of interest by the entire public over the meeting which had previously announced as "open to the public," regarding KMOS-TV application for renewal of its license by the Federal Communications Commission.

Mayor Studer opened the meeting, and announced that it was strictly not a discussion over the proposals of CATV, and strictly a discussion over Channel 6, and its blocking out Channel 5. He continued by reading a prepared statement, which in part said:

"Some statements have come to the City Hall that this meeting here tonight is keyed to and tied in with the cable TV proposals that are now before the City Council. The chair wants to categorically deny these statements as the meeting here tonight and the meeting of the council members Tuesday, Nov. 24, has nothing to do with the cable TV proposals.

"I should like to repeat what the chair said to the members of the City Council at our meeting on November 24th — QUOTE

"It appears to be the opinion of many of our citizens that they favor the renewal of the license of Station KMOS-TV, Channel 6, as this station is an asset to our community."

"However, it also appears to be the considered opinion of many of our citizens that before the license is renewed that the Jefferson Television Co., should be willing to agree and to give some assurance that if and when it is renewed, that they will relocate their tower or take some other action that may be necessary that will eliminate the blacking out and interference to the operation of Channels 4 and 5 in the City of Sedalia.

Answers Your Problems

Dear Ann Landers: Recently we bought a lovely home through a real estate broker. He was a pleasant chap and we grew very fond of him.

Yesterday he brought a gift—a handsome brass door plaque, complete with screws—obviously for the front door. On the plaque was beautifully engraved THE HENDERSON'S.

I was horrified to see the apostrophe. As you know, this is grammatically incorrect. We can't figure out what to do. My husband suggested I call the man and chide him about his poor grammar. I'm afraid it might hurt his feelings. At the same time I don't want to display a plaque with an error.

Can you provide a solution? — HENDERSONS WITHOUT APOSTROPHE.

Dear Without: Don't call the man. Call the engraver and ask him to convert the apostrophe into a decorative flourish. Perhaps he can add a matching flourish between the H and the E for balance. (P.S. When customers don't know better, the engraver should.)

Dear Ann Landers: I am 5'8" in my stocking feet. Since I can not go anywhere in my stocking feet I am 5'10" in shoes—the kind I like to wear.

Please don't throw away this letter just yet. I'm not going to ask what to do about a short boy friend. I'm married to a professional basketball player who is 6'5" tall.

My problem is that whenever we go where there is music, every runt in the place rushes up and wants to dance. There can be two dozen petite dolls sitting around but the half-pints all want to dance with me.

I feel foolish towering over these fellows and I'm sure we make an odd-looking picture. How can I get out of dancing without hurting anyone's feelings?—UP THERE.

Dear There: If the runts didn't think you were pleasant company they wouldn't ask you. Consider it a compliment. You must stand tall in more ways than one.

Dear Ann Landers: My husband and I are foster parents to an unfortunate girl. Rachel is 14 going on 20, if you know what I mean. She came from a terrible home situation—trampy mother, alcoholic father, two sisters (both unwed mothers).

The girl doesn't do what is required of her in school. I've tried to get her to study but she's not interested. Her room is a mess and although I've promised myself a dozen times I'd let the clothes hang on the doorknobs till they went out of style. I find myself picking up after her.

I am deeply concerned about her attitude toward my husband. Rachel insists on walking around the house in her bra and panties. She pretends to be surprised when she encounters him. I've seen her sit on his lap and kiss him in a way that is not daughterly. When he tells her to behave in a more "lady-like fashion" she sulks in her room for hours.

We want to make a home for the girl but I'm afraid she might make trouble in this house. May I hear from you?—QUANDARY.

Dear Quandary: It's easy for an unloved girl to become strongly attached to the first male who ever treated her decently.

Such a situation required tremendous understanding, patience and inner security. If you cannot cope with it, Rachel should be placed in another home—where the family set-up would not pose problems.

Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of this newspaper, enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

standpoint," Weldon said, and continued by saying, "We have from Aug. 29, 1961 to Nov. 1, 1964, had a loss of $223,464.66. Since we came here we have stabilized our rates, and made them uniform. Not like those before us, we have had a standard rate which the business down the street pays the same as the business up the street. We have made improvements in engineering changes of the station which was dreadfully run down when he obtained it. Very little had been done to improve the station prior to our ownership and since Milton Henlein disposed of the station.

"As I see it there is very little we can do about Channel 5," he said.

Weldon then pointed out when Kansas City stations were licensed there was no intention of them reaching the Sedalia area. The area is more than 60 air miles from the Kansas City station, and from his statement, KMOS-TV is well within the FCC ruling on station location.

He then pointed out the local station has a lease which prevents them from moving, unless Sedalia is willing to underwrite moving of the antenna as suggested and causing a new building to be built.

Brown was then called upon and Mayor Studer asked him who he represented and Brown said "You'll find out as soon as these statements are given the news media. I don't want to be misquoted." Brown then handed out several copies of the statement which he read and is as follows:

"In April 1952 in the Sixth Report and Order on Allocation, the Federal Communications Commission allocated Channel 6 to Sedalia, Missouri and Channel 5 to Kansas City, Missouri. On July 8, 1954, Channel 6 began telecasting operations.

"During the year, 1955 the then owner of Channel 6 requested the City Administration of Sedalia, Missouri, the Sedalia Chamber of Commerce, various civic organizations and church groups to intercede on behalf of Channel 6 in an attempt to acquire a network affiliation. These efforts on behalf of Channel 6 continued for a period of more than two years without success.

"The network affiliation was sought on the basis that Channel 6 interfered with and blocked out Channel 5 so that in an area embracing a population of 329,000 people and in its primary or Class A area a population of 185,600 with approximately 37,000 television sets in use, are for practical intents and purposes denied network programs and the subscribers who advertise here are being discriminated against because their advertising for which they had paid was not reaching the area for which it was designed.

"Since that time the City of Sedalia has had a continuing interest in the operation of Channel 6 and such interest continues to this time.

"In all of the intervening time, in spite of the fact that numerous complaints as to blocking out or interference with other channels has been brought to the attention of Channel 6, no practical effort has been made to solve the problem to the benefit of the televisioners in this area.

"We are here tonight representing a group of advertisers who participate in a cooperative advertising program over Channels 4, 5, 6 and 9. Inasmuch as Channel 5 is always blocked out of this area when Channel 6 is in operation and there appears to be some interference and overlapping with Channel 4, their economic participation in this problem fails to bear fruit to the extent they might reasonably anticipate when they sign the contract for advertising.

"We are now in a condition where we feel that something practically speaking should be done to correct the situation.

"In more than seven years, since this interference has been called to the attention of Channel 6, we have received vague theories of steps that could be taken to correct it. However, nothing has been done to this date and we have no reason to anticipate that anything will be done in the future.

"The practical solution to the problem, from an engineering standpoint has long since been determined. Either Channel 6 allocation will have to be changed to some other channel or the antenna will have to be moved to another location that is suitable for all purposes and without interference to other channels.

"We, therefore, respectfully request the mayor and council in their continuing an interest as to the welfare of Channel 6 that the renewal of the license of Channel 6 to telecast under the allocation of the Federal Communications Commission be protested unless Channel 6 either change its allocation to a different channel or unless the antenna is moved to a suitable site.

"Respectfully yours,
"William F. Brown
"James E. Durley"

Brown said. Brown then recalled when he was city councillor and appeared in behalf of old KDRO-TV, now KMOS-TV, for the purpose of obtaining an affiliation with CBS. Then he continued by saying he lives within three blocks of the station, and it is a peculiar situation.

He continued further by saying "This has been a long sad story. Engineering wise we have

Can't Make Signs Without Fingers

MINNEAPOLIS (AP) — A deaf mute, Joseph Kollar, 60, has brought suit for $150,000, claiming he can no longer use sign language as the result of having lost four fingers in an industrial accident.

The suit was filed against two companies connected with manufacture of a machine that broke while Kollar was using it.

a "fluke" with Channel 6 overlapping Channel 5. This has been a 10-year problem. It is not too difficult in changing a channel bond."

Then pointedly Brown remarked "You will do nothing for local television viewers; you will do nothing for your advertisers; it isn't healthy for them and it isn't healthy for your business. There are other channels open."

Weldon then remarked, "I think Mr. Brown's figures are erroneous." And Brown answered, "They are figures of the FCC." Then Weldon remarked, "I doubt it."

Durley then took the floor and said there were 40 or 45 ball games on Channel 5 which the people wanted to see but didn't get to.

Ed Scheuline, chief engineer for the Jefferson Television Co., spoke briefly, brought out various limitations and discussed the fact the local equipment was for Channels 2 through 6, and doubted if a switch would solve the problem. He also pointed out Sedalia was more fortunate than some communities in that it is able to receive stations as far away as Kansas City, and did have coverage from Channels 6, 8, 9, 13 and little interference with 4.

Channel 5 is receivable in Sedalia when Channel 6 is off the air, and both are CBS stations.

Gary Pasley, manager of the local station asked Brown, "Why hasn't this been done before on license renewals?" Brown said apparently no one knew the license was being renewed.

Pasley pointed out that it was announced four different times over KMOS-TV, while Weldon pointed out the renewals of the Jefferson Television Co., were advertised in the Jefferson City newspapers.

Considerable bickering went back and forth, but no recommendation was made as to what action the council should take in a resolution to the FCC regarding the television station.

Gerald Cecil of Cecil's Bicycle and Radio Shop, and Claude H. Knight of Knight TV, spoke briefly regarding the interference, but agreed if the antenna was moved out toward the north several miles it might be a partial solution.

Mayor Studer closed the meeting by saying what was discussed at the open session would be thoroughly discussed at the next pre-council meeting prior to the regular council meeting Monday night, Dec. 7.

New Gifts Ideas For Yule Season

Wouldn't it be heavenly to have candles that don't bend, don't melt, don't drip, don't ever burn down? Well, this year there are candles just like that. Of course, they might run out of gas occasionally—butane gas, that is—but not too often and they are easy to fill. And upon the tip top will burn for hours the little golden flame without causing the hostess one moment's worry.

Wouldn't it be nice to have a knife that never get dull, never need sharpening—never wear out? The steel that cuts forever may be found in the gifts in Sedalia stores.

The paring knife and the carving knife that slice meat like a dream and then with the fork-like prongs on the ends, lets you pick it up and put it on a plate or platter—the Snickers knife. Something any woman would like to have.

And for a unique and beautiful touch for home decoration are the exquisite Viennese glass birds, hand blown, with long curled tail feathers. Other items come in the same glass including ash trays.

Another thing of beauty is the cranberry glass decanter and six glasses.

New, too, are the reproductions of lovely old masterpiece now on artist's canvas, with large frames to enhance the walls of any home.

And then the boudoir accessories, many different pieces that will never tarnish—they are 24 carat gold.

Among gifts that would be appreciated is the air spray that leaves a wonderful flower scent, and corsages of soap roses.

A clock of solid walnut has an enameled copper face in the popular green and blue blend and chafing dishes in copper.

Unusual and pretty are the many, many items which include serving trays, candlesticks, fruit bowls and various other things of Acacia wood.

The stores are filled with gifts new and different for every occasion, for every type home.

Miss Carol Sue Schoenen has been elected district representative for District No. 11 in the Missouri State Student Nurses Association. Miss Schoenen, who is a student at St. Mary's School of Nursing, Kansas City, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Schoenen, 1205 South Prospect.

Marijuana Garden Found On Rooftop

MIAMI, Fla. (AP)—Narcotics agents said they watched while Phillip Weinschenker, 20, cultivated his roof garden. Then they confiscated his marijuana farm and placed him under arrest.

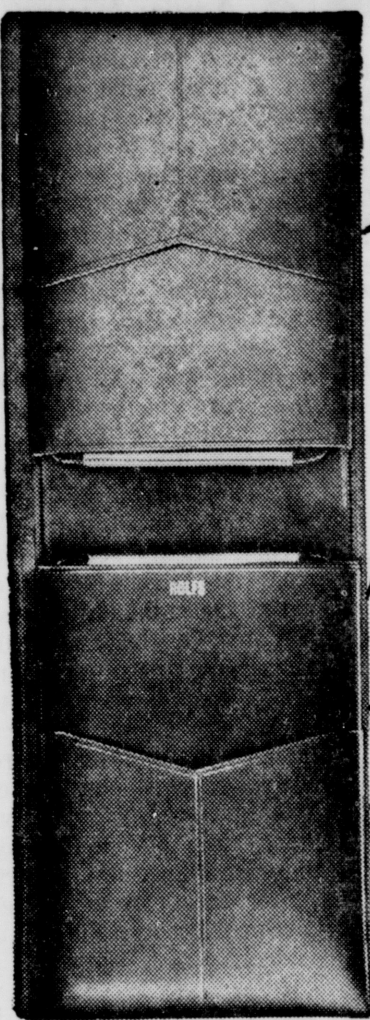

Weinschenker pleaded guilty to setting out 395 marijuana plants in baskets on the roof of his utility room. He was fined $1,000 and placed on three years' probation in Criminal Court Monday.

Another 'Colonel'

Marion Fizer, Slater, Mo., is among the honorary colonels from Saline County named last week by Governor-elect Warren E. Hearnes. His name was inadvertently omitted from the original listings from Saline County.

His brother, Clark Fizer, also of Slater, is also an honorary colonel.

Accidents

Police investigated a rear-end collision in the 1200 block of West 16th at 7:07 p. m. Monday.

Involved were a 1957 Cadillac, driven west on 16th and stopped in a line of traffic by Walter Petree, 46, 728 East Seventh, and a 1964 Rambler, driven west on 16th by William F. Cairer, 42, 910 South Massachusetts.

Damaged were the right rear fender and rear bumper of the Petree car and the front end of the Cairer car.

A hit and run accident occurred at 4:04 p. m. Monday in the 1400 block of South Limit.

Mrs. Robert Moore, Jr., 232 South Stewart, reported to the investigating officer that she was preparing to negotiate a left turn from Limit when her 1964 Chevrolet was struck by a green car. She was southbound on Limit.

Police Reports

Police Tuesday charged a 26-year-old man with petit larceny in connection with the theft of items of frozen food from a deep freeze in the garage at the Charles Danforth residence, 500 South Quincy, sometime overnight.

Edward J. Pinczykowski, who gave his address as 1309 South Kentucky or Blytheville, Ark., was released on $25 bond for appearance in Police Court Wednesday, Dec. 2.

Police officers Gordon McDowell and Edward Romano arrested Pinczykowski and a 25-year-old man early Tuesday morning and held them for investigation. Further investigation by Sgt. Perry Franklin and Officers Clarence Harrell and Vic Phelps resulted in the charge.

Sgt. Franklin said there was no forced entry to the freezer as it was unlocked. Taken were a quantity of turkeys, chickens, beef and strawberries.

The other young man arrested with Pinczykowski was released without charge.

A pistol and fishing tackle valued at a total of $210 were stolen sometime Monday night after thieves entered the garage at the Ray Anderson residence, 610 South Harrison, removed the keys from the ignition of the car and opened the auto's trunk.

Anderson reported the loss to police Tuesday morning.

Taken were a chrome plated police special pistol, a portable AM-FM radio, three fiberglass fishing rods, a bamboo fishing rod, four fishing reels and a tackle box.

Police found a suitcase and a bedroll at the southeast corner of Main and Kentucky at 2:05 a. m. Tuesday. The items were brought to police headquarters.

A representative of the Mike O'Connor Chevrolet-Buick Company reported the loss of dealer's license D-222M to police Monday.

Mrs. Henry A. Keeler, 710 West Seventh, was reportedly attacked by two dogs while walking her dog Monday about 5 p. m. According to a report received by police the incident occurred near the intersection of Sixth and Harrison. Mrs. Keeler was not injured the reports reflected.

Area Fires

A flash fire gutted the interior of a Sweet Springs cafe about 7:20 a. m. today, injuring two persons, one to the extent she was admitted to Community Hospital for treatment.

The cafe is owned and operated by C. W. Linder, who received burns around the face and arms. Mrs. Carl Roscher, who was preparing breakfast for a number of customers when the fire broke out, was admitted to the hospital for burns on the right hand and arm.

It was reported the fire started in the kitchen and exploding grease quickly spread the fire from the kitchen to the dining room, where the customers were waiting. The building and contents were listed as destroyed.

The fire was confined to the cafe building, but smoke from the burning grease entered a barber shop on one side of the cafe and a sweet shop on the other side, but no damage to these buildings was reported.

The Sweet Springs Fire Department brought the fire under control.

Police Court

William J. Hemker, Terry Hotel, charged with driving while intoxicated, forfeited a $75 bond.

Joseph Hebert, 304 West Third, charged with driving while intoxicated, pleaded innocent, but after a hearing was found guilty and fined $75.

Robert Dean Gardner, 2206 West Second Street Terrace, charged with running a stop sign, pleaded guilty and was fined $5.

Henry H. Bornholdt, Satellite Motel, charged with disturbing the peace and assault on complaint of Catherine J. Suggs, pleaded innocent, but after a hearing was found guilty and fined $25.

Orville Fiedler, 1009 Royal, charged with parking on the wrong side of the street, forfeited a $2 bond.

Magistrate Court

Eugene Wesley Livesay, 1300 South Ohio, failure to transfer auto license, pleaded guilty and was fined $5 plus court costs. Fine remitted by court.

Eddie M. Cole, 117 East Pettis, no operator's license, pleaded guilty and was fined $5 plus court costs. Fine remitted by court.

A Pettis County dairy farmer asks a judgment totalling $39,204.50 in a two-count petition filed Tuesday in Circuit Court against the MFA Central Cooperative, 2200 Clinton Road, claiming he lost one cow, had to dispose of four, lost production of 10 calves and suffered a milk production loss because foreign materials were found in a large quantity of feed he bought from the cooperative.

Harold Sullivan, Route 1, alleges ground dairy feed delivered on March 17, 1962, and July 16, 1964, contained "rocks, dirt, pebbles, nails, screws, bolts, nuts and other metallic substances." In particular, he claims the delivery of March 17, 1962, contained a "large amount of bits and pieces of welding rod."

Sullivan contends by consuming the feed delivered March 17, 1962, one cow died, four cows sustained internal injuries making them unfit to produce milk and requiring disposal at a loss of $2,500, production of 10 calves was lost at a sum of $500 and that milk production was reduced by 386,141 pounds from the date of the first delivery to Oct. 31, 1964 resulting in a loss of $16,602.30.

Damages of $19,602.30 are sought on count one of the petition and a like amount on the second count. George H. Mitchell, Warrensburg, is attorney for the plaintiff.

Important Constitutional Changes Seen In Canada

EDITORS' NOTE — The following, second of five articles on Canada, explores the knotty question of separatism.

By MAX HARRELSON

OTTAWA (AP) — The Quebec separatists are making a lot of noise, but most Canadians emphatically reject the idea that their 97-year-old confederation is about to fall apart.

It appears almost certain, however, that important constitutional changes will be made in the next few years.

Under pressure from Quebec and other provinces, Prime Minister Lester B. Pearson has acknowledged the need for modernizing the constitution. He uses the term "cooperative federalism" to describe the new concept.

This by no means satisfies the French-speaking separatists, but it has won the approval of Quebec Premier Jean Lesage and other leaders of French-Canada.

The most difficult task will be to work out some sort of recognition of the French-speaking minority in Canada — almost one-third of the total population of 19 million — without further riling English-Canadians.

The bicultural problem is as old as Canada itself, because of a basic understanding that the French language and French culture would always have a distinct role in the country. The problem, however, emerged as an acute political issue in 1959 when the movement began to attract a following among students and other young people.

French-Canadian leaders are divided as to their objectives and, as a result, their cause has been weakened somewhat. The numerous organized groups go all the way from the extremists who advocate terrorism, to conservatives who will settle for modest constitutional changes.

In other parts of Canada there are signs of a substantial English backlash as a result of terrorist bombings and separatist demonstrations against Queen Elizabeth II. In the west especially, there is a strong tendency to minimize the Quebec situation or even to joke about it.

Dick Sanburn, editor of the Calgary Herald, is one of those who has spoken out against separatism.

"I feel almost certain," he said, "that the rest of Canada has had just about enough of Quebec's spoiled-baby behavior."

Quebec Social Credit leader Real Caouette feels just as strongly on the other side.

"There are certain retrograde English-Canadians," Caouette said, "who still believe they are going to assimilate the French-Canadians and make them speak English."

Caouette added that he includes Conservative leader John G. Diefenbaker in this category. Diefenbaker has split with several key Conservatives over the approach to constitutional changes and over the proposed new flag.

There still are some leaders who take the separatists seriously, but Premier Lesage is not one of them. He refers to them as a "small gang of extremists of no importance whatsoever."

Recent public opinion polls indicate Canadians generally agree with him. Only 20 per cent expressed the belief that Quebec might secede from Canada. Only 39 per cent believed such a move would have "very serious" effects on the future of Canada — if it happened.

Few political leaders have been as outspoken as Diefenbaker against the proposed changes. He told a recent meeting of the Ontario Conservative Association that the amendments would lead to the "Balkanization" of Canada, and that the changes were being pushed by the Liberals simply as a means of getting votes.

"The provinces," he said, "would end up with their own tariff and immigration laws and monetary policy. We can become a loose association of states."

December Will Tell

Economy Suffers a Setback,
With Extent Not Yet KnownBy SAM DAWSON
AP Business News Analyst

NEW YORK (AP) — This is the month that should allay a lot of doubts — or confirm them. October and November have piled up uncertainties at home and abroad and many are still so clouded they could offer further surprises. In December they should come under a stronger and more revealing light.

The economy has been given a setback by the auto strikes. December should spell out how much of a setback, or how temporary a one. Even more basic is the question hanging fire as to how the new car models will sell. They haven't had a convincing chance yet.

The industry still has to prove it can pull off an unprecedented fourth straight year of high sales. And how the auto industry goes has a big effect on how the rest of the economy goes in its try also for an unprecedented fourth year of peacetime upswing.

This is the month that the steel unions may spell out their demands for wage and fringe benefit increases. And the public may get a better idea of how much this will cost, of the likelihood of the companies going along with the demands, of the chances of a general boost in steel prices.

Many economists have tagged this cliffhanger in steel as the important one in the question of whether another round of inflation can be expected sometime in 1965.

In December the administration hammers out the federal budget that affects everyone. It won't be presented to Congress until January. But in December the nation usually gets a pretty good idea of how high government spending will be — and which industries will gain, which suffer.

And before the month is over it should be clearer too what will be done about taxes — what ones may be cut, what ones might rise. From all this will come an idea of how much of a Treasury deficit lies ahead — that there will be one is sure. How much of one tells how big a boost government will be giving the economy next year.

Whether interest rates will Awards were given to Cub Scouts of Pack 66 at the regular monthly pack meeting at the First Christian Church. The work higher in coming weeks may also be clearer before New Year's Eve. And what effect this will have on business is still debated despite the government assurances that the effect will be minor.

The confusion is increased just now by the uncertainties growing out of the crisis in the British pound sterling, the continuing imbalance of the British economy that brought on the crisis, and the moves to protect the pound — and also the dollar — from renewed raids by speculators.

One thing most people are counting on is that the American consumer will brush all this aside and spend with confidence if not abandon this month. The biggest December retail sales ever are widely expected — some estimating they will top last year's by 6 per cent.

And the month also seems sure to bring in a golden flow of year-end dividends by corporations enjoying a record profit year. Many brokers are sure this will spark the usual year-end rally in stock prices.

If all these uncertainties are resolved pleasantly this month, Americans will have plenty to celebrate as 1965 starts.

awards were presented by Doug Crank, Cubmaster. Receiving Bob Cat pins were Bruce Mowry, Scott Hageman, Don Smith, Kevin Broadus, Douglas Jones, and David Forsee.

Service pins were presented to William DeHaven, Kim and Keith Austin, one year; Derrick Crank, Keith Anderson, Jerry Allen, Stephen McMurdo, Edward Craig, Patrick Ferguson, and Greg Moyer, two years.

Aric Syder received a Wolf Badge and Mothers pin, Gary Young, received a Bear Badge and Mother's pin, and Greg Moyer received a Lion Badge, a Gold Arrow and a Mother's pin. Steven Wittman was awarded a Silver Arrow Point under the Wolf Badge. The next regular pack meeting will be the Christmas party at the Church Dec. 21.

Saving More, But Not in Banks

By NEIL GILBRIDE
AP Labor Writer

WASHINGTON (AP)—"Money in the bank" is no longer so important to the average family, the Labor Department says, even though the typical urban family is saving twice as much now as in 1950.

Instead of putting cash in the bank, most families are saving in different ways — sinking their money into life insurance and housing.

This is a key finding of the department's first detailed study of consumer habits in 15 years.

The study also shows that most Americans are giving more money away, in the form of gifts and charitable contributions.

Cambodia, North Viet Nam Arrange Meeting In Peking

TOKYO (AP)—Frustrated in his bid to obtain an international conference to secure neutrality, Cambodia's chief of state, Prince Norodom Sihanouk, has turned to Communist North Viet Nam.

Jumping To Conclusions With Boyle

By HAL BOYLE
NEW YORK (AP) — Jumping to conclusions:

Any country might have better foreign relations if it drafted the mothers of large families to serve in its diplomatic corps. A woman with from five to 10 kids has to settle more arguments in a day than the United Nations does in a year.

If you check the shirts of the average confidence man, you'll find he wears french cuffs. He also tends to be excessively neat.

Most cats nowadays live all their nine lives without ever seeing another cat or a mouse, let alone catching one. But the fact they no longer do anything to earn their keep never bothers them at all. Only man requires work to find happiness.

When you see some of the books they print today, it can't help but make you think Uncle Sam should do more to conserve our valuable timerlands.

Rarity often is a factor in beauty. If everyone saw 100 rainbows every day, who would bother to admire or praise them?

Nothing makes a middle-aged man more homesick for his own childhood than to see a boy wearing patched trousers.

You begin to grow up in this world when you realize that no joy — and no ball point pen — lasts forever.

One of the first things an executive learns is to make his signature indecipherable — as if it had been scrawled in a vast hurry. Actually, you can teach a chimpanzee to sign his name this way just as quickly as you can an executive.

When man invented the alarm clock, he already had gone too far down the road to automation ever to turn back.

There may be no honor among thieves, but there is plenty of snobbery. A safecracker looks down his nose at the robber who holds up a bank at gunpoint — and a professional forger sneers at them both.

The fellow who avoids going to the doctor in order to save money reaps one reward. He usually winds up by having the finest funeral in the block.

In the old days it was the women who used to imitate the men. Now we seem to be reversing the trend. How else explains the fact you see so many men wearing pointed shoes lately?

The average dog in America is better fed than the average teen-ager.

The four hardest things in the world to keep secret are: secret loving, secret drinking, secret gambling and secret thinking.

"The average family is less impelled to accumulate cash savings and other liquid assets to tide them over emergencies," said a report by the Bureau of Labor Statistics.

"Moreover, as home ownership has increased, the family's equity in a home and its equipment has constituted a growing share of its savings," the report added.

Another major form of savings today is in insurance, including Social Security. Group insurance plans sponsored under labor agreements provide "an almost automatic form of workers' savings," the report said.

The study compared consumer spending habits from 1950 to 1961. It was made to modernize the government's consumer price index which is the chief means of determining typical living costs. Many labor agreements are based on the month-to-month changes in the figures.

The most significant change in spending habits found in the survey was in housing. The average urban family spent nearly $1,600 for housing in 1960-61. That was about $550 more per year than in 1950.

Social Security and other pension plans accounted for 53 per cent of the average family's annual insurance spending of $324 in 1960-61, the survey showed. The corresponding figure in 1950 was 31 per cent, it said.

Overall, average consumer spending jumped 42 per cent from 1950 to 1960-61 to a total of $5,390 a year.

After allowing for price increases in the same period, there was a net gain of about 14 per cent in added goods and services, the report said.

Although federal, state and local taxes had soared 140 per cent since 1950, the average family's after-tax income still rose 51 per cent from $3,910 to $5,906, it said.

In 1950, families used 97 per cent of their income for current living expenses but by 1961, the figure had dropped to 91 per cent.

"Gifts to friends and relatives and contributions to religious, welfare, educational and similar institutions averaged $303 per family in 1960-61, almost double the 1950 amount," the study said.

Another important change since 1950 was that the average family had to spend considerably less for food. The figure dropped from nearly 30 per cent in 1950 to 24 per cent in 1960-61, thus freeing that much money for other spending or savings investments.

Stage Protest Rallies

BUDAPEST, Hungary (AP) — Protest rallies were staged Monday at Budapest's universities against "the bloody acts of aggression by foreign military interventionists in the Congo and Viet Nam," the news agency MTI announced.

This was the first public manifestation in Hungary since the U.S.-Belgian action in the Congo and recent developments in Viet Nam. The rallies were mild compared to anti-Western demonstrations in Prague and Sofia last week, where U.S. and Belgian embassies were stoned.

Space Show Loses Spot On Saturday

By CYNTHIA LOWRY
AP Television-Radio Writer

NEW YORK (AP) — One of the few traditions of network television is that the death of a program is never formally announced. It usually is reluctantly admitted only when the replacement program is heralded.

Over the weekend ABC, not unexpectedly, announced a new program to fill its 7:30-8:30 p.m. spot on Saturday nights, starting Jan. 23. It used about 300 words to extol the series, "The King Family" as "an hour of music and fun" but not one word was spent on "The Outer Limits," a science-fiction anthology series which will slip away quietly in the middle of its second season.

The demise of the program, which often featured weird characters from outer space, is an interesting subject for speculation, particularly in a season when creatures from outer space and other worlds are the vogue.

It seems most likely, however, that "The Outer Limits" was a victim of a tough time slot. It was renewed after a pretty good year in an early Monday evening hour. ABC shifted it to Saturday, in an hour which also gave the network trouble last season — "Hootenanny" died there.

It was, for the most part, a quiet and uneventful television weekend. Steve Lawrence and Juliet Prowse were stylish and interesting to watch Friday

Find Crude Weapons Hidden Inside St. Louis City Jail

ST. LOUIS (AP) — A raid at the St. Louis City Jail may have thwarted a planned mass break.

The raid in a cellblock housing some of the city's most dangerous criminals turned up scores of crude weapons including home-made knives and bludgeons.

Jail Warden William Boeger was tipped that several prisoners planned a mass break and he sought police aid. A team of detectives led by Lt. Francis O'Brien assembled at the jail late Saturday night.

The officers moved into the night in an NBC special. Gordon and Sheila MacRae were the bright spots in Ed Sullivan's CBS hour Sunday night, particularly Sheila's devastating mimicking of Carol Channing and Barbra Streisand.

tier of the fourth floor cell block, herded 22 prisoners into an away and searched their cells.

As word spread that a shake-down was going on, other prisoners pitched weapons onto landings and into air vents.

Authorities recovered razor blades, daggers, nooses, crude blackjacks, ice picks, sections of metal pipe and lengths of cloth braided into ropes.

Among the prisoners held in the raided tier were: Roger Lee McQueen, under a life sentence for a killing and awaiting trial on another murder charge; Jeff Hanger Jr., an ex-convict charged with the murder of a woman; Billy Joe Tyler, charged with robbery and shooting a policeman; and James L. Ashlock, under a 10-year prison sentence for assault with intent to kill.

Next time you're making the drinks, instead of your usual whiskey, use this superior import.

Do what thousands of smart drinkers have done: Compare Windsor Canadian with your usual whiskey. Make two drinks, one with your "usual," the other Windsor. You'll be amazed—as thousands are—at the extra smoothness of Windsor. There are three reasons for this!

1. Windsor is distilled and aged in dry, crisp, mile-high Rocky Mountain air.
2. Windsor is made from Western Canadian grain, hearty and vigorous.
3. And the water is clear pure glacial water.

No wonder Windsor is the smoothest whisky ever to come out of Canada.

Yet this uniquely smooth, elegant import is priced right in line with leading popular-priced whiskeys. Try it.

Presbyterian Women Hold Nov. Meets

Group meetings of the Broadway Presbyterian Church Women's Association were held as follows:

Mrs. C. C. DeLozier, 237 South Park, was hostess to members of Group 1, on Thursday, Nov. 19, at 2 p.m. A dessert was served to 14 members and one new member, Miss Helen Swap was received into the group.

In the absence of Mrs. Marian Merry, group chairman, Mrs. Ona Mae Miers presided over the business meeting. Mrs. Clyde Heynen read names of missionaries from the year book of prayers and offered prayer in their behalf. Thirty calls to sick and shut-in members were reported.

Advent trysts for Bible study during the Christmas season were distributed. Plans for a Christmas project were discussed, gifts selected to be distributed by the Deacon's group.

The lesson study and discussion was led by Mrs. Miers assisted by several members of the group and closed with prayer.

The next meeting will be Dec. 17, at the home of Mrs. E. M. Stafford, 419 Dal-Whi-Mo. The next lesson study will be on "Africa" with Mrs. DeLozier as leader. The meeting closed with the Mizpah benediction.

Group 2 met Thursday, Nov. 19, at 9:30 a.m. with Mrs. Glen Riekhof, with eight members present.

The meeting was opened with the reading of a poem, "Gratitude" by the chairman, Mrs. Foster McGuire, who presided over the business meeting.

Mrs. Ralph Vander Kamp, conducted the service of the Lost Coin.

Mrs. H. N. Branson read from the Mission World Book of Prayer. The lesson, "The Nation and the Kingdom" was led by Mrs. Pervis Milster with other members of the group participating.

Mrs. James Callis will be hostess for the December meeting.

Group 3, met at the home of Mrs. Alvin Heynen for its Thanksgiving dinner meeting.

Mrs. James Giokaris, circle chairman, presided over the meeting. Least Coin and pledge offerings were given and the Least Coin prayer was given by Miss Marjorie Rector.

Mrs. Marion McCarty gave the program on Asia, and was assisted by Miss Rector, Mrs. Steve Elser, Mrs. Melvin Lane and Mrs. Emory Bowman.

The next meeting will be Dec. 9, at the home of Mrs. Leon Hall.

Group 4 met at the home of Mrs. M. G. Witzengreuter, on Nov. 19 with seven present and Mrs. Kenneth Smith, Association president, as a guest.

Mrs. Ira Leiter gave the lesson and Thelma Miller conducted the Least Coin service. Gifts were wrapped for the shut-ins for Christmas. The luncheon the group is in charge of for the December Association meeting was discussed.

The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Grace Hesterlee, 906 West Broadway.

Mrs. A. Cusick Installed Head Maplewood Club

Mrs. Allen Cusick was installed president of Maplewood Better Homes Club at its November meeting at the home of Mrs. Philip Imhauser.

Other officers, installed by Mrs. Ed Heffernan, were: Mrs. James Sumner, vice president; Mrs. Walter Banning, secretary; Mrs. James Hopper, treasurer.

Contributive luncheon was served to eight members and one guest, Mrs. Leo Burlette, Sedalia.

Mrs. George Nelson, retiring president, led the business meeting. Roll call was answered with "What I Want for Christmas." Mrs. Imhauser read secretary's report. Mrs. John Brazos gave the devotional.

A basket of apples was reported sent to Children's Therapy Center as a Halloween gift. A card of thanks was read from the Pruitt family for flowers sent to the funeral of Mr. Pruitt, who was the father of Mrs. Chris Rau. Mrs. Walter Banning was thanked for taking cookies and hot coffee to members who cleaned the Community Hall for fall and winter activities.

A large display of articles to be made for Christmas gifts were shown and instructions for making them were given by those who brought them.

Plans were made and committees appointed for the Christmas party which will be in December at the hall. Supper will be served, $1 gifts will be exchanged and Santa Claus will visit.

Any Rebate for a Miss?

The garbage problem is with us again!

There was no pickup Thanksgiving day. This is customary procedure on a holiday. The city endeavored to back track on Friday to make collections missed on Thursday. This double duty can create a rugged routine for the collectors, and, if they are missed, considerable misery for householders who already had an overflow from extra disposal of turkey day remnants.

When garbage collection was free there was more tolerance and less complaints. But now that the city has a price tag of $1.00 on the water bill to bring in $87,000 of annual revenue, the taxpayers are beginning to look with jaundiced eye on a paragraph in the garbage ordinance which reads:

"The city or its authorized representative SHALL collect and remove mixed refuse from customer's premises according to the following schedule:

A. Twice weekly beginning May 15 and ending October 15. There shall be an interval of two days between each collection.

B. Once weekly commencing October 15, and ending May 15."

No provision exists for missing anyone a full week because of a holiday. No one knows how many customers were missed last week in Sedalia but those who were are beginning to grumble. Will the city charge them the full $1.00 monthly collection fee for November or issue a 25 cent credit?

As if this is not distracting enough, think what's in store in December. Christmas comes on Friday. Will those missed on the Friday route have a pickup on Saturday at straight time or overtime?

Those who decline to get into an argument with the city about the questionable legality of its collection service, declare they are not going to become involved over a technicality or principle. They're just going to buy another garbage can, stimulate the Christmas shopping season, and sing carols about how lucky they are to be able to fill two cans with garbage in one week.

TWENTY-FIVE YEARS AGO

Before members of the Sedalia Garden clubs and other spectators, Dr. J. E. Canaday accepted a plaque award of merit for the State Fair Floral Station on Highway 65 at Sixteenth street. This was given by the National Council of State Garden clubs for beautification of the premises about the station, and is the second award to be presented in Missouri. Presentation was made by Mrs. Clarence L. Carter, state horticultural chairman. N. U. Renshaw, manager of the station, and Mrs. Renshaw also responded to the compliments for their part in meriting the award. Others who spoke were: J. A. Fisher, advertising manager for Standard Oil Co.; Ellsworth Green, manager of the Chamber of Commerce; George H. Scruton, editor of the Sedalia Democrat; and J. T. An urgent plea comes from the National Audubon Society to American women to quit buying coats made of leopard skins.

ASBURY PARK (N.J.) PRESS: Water for Centuries.—A plan to furnish ample water for the entire continent of North America for centuries has attracted enough attention for the Senate Public Works Committee to name a special subcommittee to study its engineering feasibility. It will be under the chairmanship of Senator Frank E. Moss, Utah Democrat.

As outlined, the plan would collect and utilize the surplus water that falls in Alaska and Northwest Canada and transport it through a system of canals, tunnels and rivers to the arid Southwest and Northern Mexico. It would divert only one-fifth of the water that now runs unused to the sea.

The water would be pumped into the Rocky Mountain Trench in Canada and stored in vast reservoirs, one 500 miles long to be connected by a navigable canal with Lake Superior to add a substantial quantity of water to the Great Lakes-St. Lawrence system. Runoff canals would traverse the Great Basin through Idaho, Utah and Arizona with branches extending to New Mexico, California, Colorado and Mexico.

The cost is estimated at $100 billion over a 30-year period but this could be self-liquidating through the sale of water and power. One of the most attractive features of the plan is that it would provide four million jobs, just about the number of unemployed. It would require treaties with Canada and Mexico but it would also knit the continent in a water system without compare in the world.

With the population explosion ahead this is the kind of thinking that anticipates the needs of the continent for centuries to come.

Mars Shot Bigger Deal Than Moon

By RAY CROMLEY
Washington Correspondent
Newspaper Enterprise Assn.

WASHINGTON — The Mars shot could lead eventually to scientific gains much greater than will be achieved by the moon program.

A private poll at a recent meeting of men working on space biology showed the average scientist in the group to be 75 to 80 per cent certain there is some sort of life on the red planet.

Mars and the earth have been going their separate ways for at least one billion years. Any vegetable or other life on Mars will certainly have developed along lines different from life on earth. A study of those differences is a most certain to lead to new discoveries about how the human body works.

Because radiation is heavy on Mars, any life there must have developed some way to protect itself under continued radiation. Such knowledge would be priceless to earth humans. Scientists are eager to see if the system used by Mars plants or other forms of life could be adapted to some sort of protection for men and women caught in nuclear raids.

Differences in the evolution of Mars and earth plant life could lead to experiments that could produce valuable new plant hybrids.

There is evidence of some sort of life on Mars in areas where the temperature varies from that of a cool room down to minus 200 degrees Fahrenheit every day. Discovery of the secret of this ability to withstand tremendous temperature changes would be priceless for agriculture.

Scientists here say that almost every time we have found groups of exotically different life — animal or plant or whatever — we have learned new things about ourselves.

In the past several decades, the sea has been "somewhat like Mars." That is, much of the life in the seas is greatly different from that on land.

Many important discoveries about man have been made by taking advantage of these differences.

One exotic or very different type of life in the ocean is the squid. The squid, fortunately, has a nerve fiber 10,000 times as large as those in human beings. By experiments with this creature, scientists have made great chemical advances in the treatment of nervous and mental disorders.

From this same squid, scientists have learned a great deal about what generates the electrical nerve impulse in humans and a great deal about the enzymatic process in nerves that enables nerves to transmit one impulse and recover quickly so as to be able to send another.

From the squid, likewise, we have learned a great deal about those things that determine whether or not a nerve will react to a certain stimulus — and what raises or lowers the ability of nerves to react.

The squid has made possible new developments in chemical warfare and in defenses against chemical warfare. It has led to better insecticides.

Unusual plants or other life on Mars could lead to equally important discoveries. They will, of course, be years in coming. A Mars orbit is planned for 1969. The landing of a package that will study Martian life (if any) and send back messages is planned for 1971 and again in 1973.

The World Today

Time for LBJ to Prove Himself

By JAMES MARLOW
Associated Press News Analyst
WASHINGTON (AP) — President Johnson, far more wrapped up in home problems than foreign ones, has had a year to prepare himself for asserting world leadership.

He has asserted very little of it yet in any truly visible way. Just because his foreign experience is limited, it remains to be seen how good he is in this field, or if he is good at all.

At this moment American foreign leadership is beginning to look a little beat up and tattered. Two good examples: the disintegrating war in Viet Nam and this country's rickety NATO alliance with the West Europeans.

But he must prove himself soon, for time is running out on him.

Today two of his biggest immediate problems were in his lap, seeking solution: What to do about the Soviet Union in the United Nations and how to win the Vietnamese war or at least not lose it in total disaster.

Perhaps in his first year, when he had simply inherited the presidency, Johnson was reluctant to go pushy in foreign affairs, wondering if he could claim the full endorsement of the nation.

He can have no such reluctance now after the approval he got in his landslide election victory.

He has provided none of the sense of life and movement that distinguished President John F. Kennedy in foreign affairs, even when he accomplished little or blundered, as he did in the Cuban invasion disaster of 1961.

In time the action and goodwill Kennedy put into foreign affairs may be considered his greatest contribution to the presidency. At the same time, he was no match for Johnson in getting programs through Congress.

Johnson, as President since Kennedy's death, necessarily has had final say in this country's foreign decisions. But they have had none of Kennedy's shine if only for the reason that while Kennedy acted in full view of the nation and the world with his decisions and his programs, Johnson has called the shots most of the time from off-stage and out of view, using aides as emissaries.

Since that fatal Nov. 22, 1963, in Dallas, Johnson seems to have had three main occupations, all of them domestic: getting programs through Congress, running for election, and in the weeks since then at his Texas ranch getting his 1965 budget and programs ready for the Congress returning in January.

In his first year Kennedy put the Peace Corps in motion, stepped up the Vietnamese war, ordered the resumption of nuclear tests after the Soviet Union broke the test-ban moratorium, met with the then Soviet premier, Nikita Khrushchev, in Vienna, with French President Charles de Gaulle in Paris and with then British Prime Minister Harold Macmillan in London.

Johnson inherited a bad situation in Viet Nam, but it has steadily been getting worse. Just a few weeks before he took office, President Ngo Dinh Diem was assassinated and a new government took over. Since then, one regime after another has been toppled.

Meanwhile, the Communist guerrillas of North Viet Nam have been making hash of the resistance put up by the American-backed South Vietnamese, who at this minute seem to be falling apart.

Now the American ambassador to Saigon, Maxwell D. Taylor, is home to confer with Johnson today on how to win or at least escape disaster. Defeat may mean the loss of all of Southeast Asia to Red China.

The decisions Johnson makes now will be fateful. Today at the United Nations, this country faced a showdown, unless an escape or some other solution is found. The reason: the Soviet Union's refusal to pay its share, $52.6 million, of the world organization's peace-keeping costs.

Under U.N. rules a member that doesn't pay its dues can't vote. And the Soviet Union has threatened to walk out if it can't vote. This could mean the smash-up of the United Nations unless some way out is found.

Relations among the NATO Allies are increasingly rocky. The United States isn't solving anything. Even its proposals to defend Europe with a 25-vessel

Way With a Scarf

By Polly Cramer
Newspaper Enterprise Assn.

DEAR POLLY — To keep just the same two corners of a head scarf rumpled, stitch together the two ends that are not to be tied, the ones that will hang at the back. You do not have to adjust the corners and you will always have a neat looking scarf. — MRS. S. P. H.

DEAR POLLY — Every one of my five boys can get along beautifully with a pencil only two inches long but each has a hopelessly long bar of soap less than two-thirds its original size. Those little bars in motels throw them into utter confusion. Not long ago, I discovered I was floundering in a sea of perfectly good pieces of soap which seemed to represent a potential penny in my pocket.

Searching for a solution, I cut a piece of nylon net twice the size of a regular bar of soap, folded it and crocheted around the sides with a contrasting color thread and then went around the top open end with a row of loops. A drawstring through the loops with the ends tied together makes a handle that fits over the shower head and the bar of soap pieces as become a permanent bathroom accessory. It is also terrific for smoothing off rough heels — MRS. R. B. M.

DEAR POLLY — Try using golf tees to stop window rattles in the winter. The tees are easy to insert in the proper places in the frame. They will not show and certainly do stop the noise. — MRS. M. M.

DEAR POLLY — Trying to economize, I purchased a flat mattress pad instead of a fitted one but was unhappy when it did not stay in place. I put a fitted bottom sheet that was worn in the middle on my bed and pinned the new mattress pad to it. After I sewed the pad in place on the sheet, I trimmed away middle of the sheet under the pad and now have a good fitted mattress cover. — PHYLLIS

DEAR POLLY — Old blankets and bedspreads may be made into large drawstring bags which are wonderful to protect extra table boards while they are stored.

Bags may also be made in sizes to fit silver trays, dishes, etc. and will protect them from scratches and still not take up as much valuable closet space as boxes do. — ANOTHER POLLY

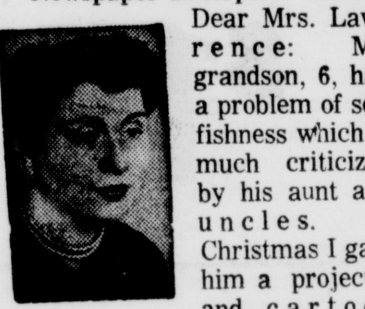

DEAR POLLY — I buy and wear many two-way stretch girdles in a year's time. The back of a girdle becomes threadbare long before the rest of it does. I cut out the worn strip in the back and replace it with a good front piece from another old girdle. The same number of girdles give far longer wear. Sew your seams flat for comfort. — E. A. G.

By Mrs. Muriel Lawrence
Newspaper Enterprise Assn.

DEAR MRS. LAWRENCE: My grandson, 6, has a problem of selfishness which is much criticized by his aunt and uncle. At Christmas I gave him a projector and cartoon slides in the hope that he would let his younger cousin hand him the slides while he worked the projector. But his cousin isn't allowed to touch them. When I asked him to let his cousin share the toy, he grabbed it, and played with it in his bedroom by himself. Such selfishness should not be...

ANSWER: We live in a country which operates on respect for private property. It is not a country of collectives where people share the tractors, food and clothing. In America, farmers own their tractors and children own their toys. Both are entitled to do with them exactly as they please.

Jesus said "it is more blessed to give than receive," but that is not the social and economic viewpoint of this country. And I am tired of grownups who insist that little children eat the Christmas cake while they themselves keep firmest hold of their private property.

It is most confusing to be a child living among grownups fleet armed with Polaris nuclear missiles has bogged down.

Johnson's order to use American planes in rescuing hostages held by Congo rebels has caused a storm. And with Khrushchev thrown out, Johnson doesn't know what to expect from his successors in the Kremlin.

who require you to share your Christmas toys while they hate income taxes, resent foreign aid, boast of their new cars and otherwise bask in their ownership of private property. It is most confusing to be called "selfish" for doing precisely what the grownups do. I'm sorry, but I can't join in your self-righteous disgust with your grandson's insistence on ownership of his toys.

We share happily what we own with others as we become happy and sure in that ownership. It is the besetting problem of communism that its sharing people resent sharing, that their "unselfishness" is forced upon them by external pressure, thus making it synthetic instead of real. This is light years behind the unselfishness that Jesus preached — that joy in one's sense of abundance which spills over to bless everyone in contact with it.

Never in this world will you help your grandson to share his toys by external pressure. To stimulate Christian unselfishness in him, you must first find it in yourself. You must follow him into the room of his lonely play with his projector and rejoice in his delight until it swells to the uncontrollable point, spills over and he says, "Grandma, maybe Billy can help us! Maybe, if he picks out the slides I tell him to pick out, we can ask him to help us!"

Islet Ship

An uninhabited islet off Martinique was called HMS Diamond Rock during the Napoleonic wars. Here British sailors and marines held out for nearly 18 months before surrendering to a French naval squadron. Caves in its sheer cliffs sheltered barracks, coastal batteries and a hospital.

First Of All, Your House Should Be a Real Home

By Ruth Millett
Newspaper Enterprise Assn.

Every American family, it seems to me, would be happier if they treated their house like a home, instead of a showcase.

They work and save through the years to make it just the kind of dream house they've always wanted to own.

They pour money into making it attractive and livable, into putting in all the wonderful new labor-saving devices.

And when the dream house is a reality, then what? They start saving to get away from home!

What's behind this two-sided desire to own the perfect place to live, and then to get away from it as often as possible?

Is it because we've worked so hard achieving the ambition of a perfect home that we can't ever really relax in it?

Maybe we're afraid that when the kids come home from school, they'll scuff the perfectly waxed floors with their muddy boots or clutter up the perfectly kept front yard with their toys.

And so to have a really gay and carefree time we have to run off and leave the perfect house behind us, leave it and the care of it and the worries connected with it.

We "rough" it in some place where we can relax without worrying because the lawn needs mowing, the rose bushes need spraying, or because the children are a constant threat to the order of the beautiful home.

Watch the carefree, easy relaxation of any family "roughing it" on vacation, and you can't help but wonder if the family couldn't have a little more of that same easygoing fun all year round if the house weren't quite such a perfect place and was more of a home.

Something for Everybody

Peek Into Sedalia Stores Reveals Variety of Gifts

We have been peeking into Sedalia stores looking for something new and different to put in Christmas stockings or under the tree or just to mail out of town and has it ever been fun. Take the men for instance who are always fussing because they just get ties and socks. How about a battery operated back scratcher? Bet none of them ever got one of those before. And the illuminated screw-driver, that has a flashlight in the handle, which is in a case with several different types and sizes of screw-drivers. For the occasion you hope you never have, such as a flat tire on the highway, there is a flashlight with a flashing red light on top to let other drivers know you are there. For the man who doesn't like to turn the handle on the pencil sharpener, how about an automatic sharpener that you simply put your pencil in and pull it out in seconds with the nicest sharpest point you ever saw. The beautiful metal fire extinguisher isn't a fire extinguisher at all, it is a thirst extinguisher, and it plays, when you lift it up: "Nobody Knows How Dry I Am." This, according to an engraving on the extinguisher, is approved by Underwriters and Fire Chiefs. There is a travel bar, too, and ice buckets of various kinds with matching glasses.

Soup Lady's Story Told In Feature

A picture of Mrs. O. M. Green, former Sedalian, and a feature story by Alice O. Hamilton, appeared in a recent issue of The Billings Gazette, Billings, Mont. which follows in part: "It was 50 years ago that she became known as the 'soup lady' of Pettis County, Mo. "She was Mildred Henton then and she was there on the strength of a dream. "This dream had grown in the mind of Mrs. Harry Sneed, a farm woman, who wanted to better her life and lives of the hard working farm wives around her. "A small homemaker's club grew into a large group. Though learning from each other, they felt the need of a more experienced person to help them in the way their husbands were being helped by a new 'farm adviser.' Many pie suppers, box socials and lawn parties later the money accumulated. "Mrs. Green, who had a farm background and a degree in 'domestic art' became Pettis County's 'soup lady.' "A stout buggy, a good horse and a heavy raincoat were minimal equipment. Jars of tomatoes, a one burner gas stove and a few dishes tucked under the buggy boot earned her the title of 'soup lady' as she hurried on her rounds, making two schools each day. "She taught nutrition, sanitation, darning, sewing, even woodworking to boys. "Parents, both mothers and fathers, came to see these special classes. Interested mothers asked her into their homes to get more help in homemaking. Demonstrations were given to an ever increasing number of home homemakers' clubs. "Homemakers' clubs are not extension clubs. Soup making is but a minor part of any home demonstration agent's work. But the effort to improve home making skills, techniques and conditions is the same as it was 50 years ago when Mildred Henton, now Mrs. O. M. Green, became first 'county woman' of the first extension clubs of Pettis County, Mo."

Holiday Traffic Toll New Record

CHICAGO (AP) — The nation's 554 traffic deaths during the extended Thanksgiving weekend was a record for the 102-hour holiday period. The previous high since The Associated Press started counting traffic fatalities for the four-day holiday in 1958 was 543 last year. This year's total averaged 130 deaths a day compared to an average of 126 daily during the first nine months of 1964. For comparative purposes The AP made a survey for a 102-hour non-holiday weekend and counted 468 traffic deaths. The record traffic death toll

Asking Parents For Permission to Whip

CHESTER, Pa. (AP) — The Chester Township School Board is seeking the permission of parents to paddle pupils for disobedience. Robert F. Russell, acting president of the board, said Monday the board will send notices to parents this week requesting their consent. When consent is not granted, he said, pupils who are disciplinary problems will be expelled. The action was taken after a Chester teacher, Constance Brown, appeared in court Saturday on a charge of assault and battery. for any 102-hour holiday period is 706, set in Christmas 1956.

Johnson Gives 'Thank You' To Medal Winners

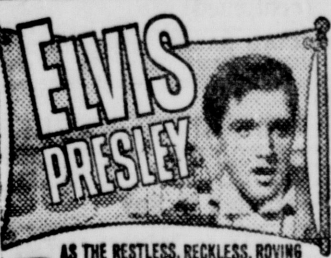

WASHINGTON, (AP) — President Johnson gives a proud nation's "thank you" at a White House luncheon today to medal winners on the American Olympic team that surprised the world at Tokyo. It was the first time United States Olympians had been so honored and Art Lentz, assistant executive director of the U.S. Olympic Committee, termed the President's hospitality "a wonderful boost for our Olympic team." The United States won 36 first places in the Tokyo Games, 26 seconds and 28 thirds as compared with 30 first places for highly favored Russia, 31 seconds and 35 thirds. In all 125 individuals won 151 medals at Tokyo, and the U.S. Olympic Committee was able to round up about 100 for the White House luncheon.

It's that time of the year and we must button up our overcoat for the weekdays, but we'll be open weekends with big pictures and big stars. See you Friday. Weekdays see a fine movie indoors at the Fox!

Joins a Power Pool

TOPEKA, Kan. (AP)—Three Missouri electric companies and two in Kansas are included in a power pool designed to coordinate transmission and generating activities in the Midwest. The five utilities in Kansas and Missouri are Kansas Power & Light, Kansas Gas & Electric, Kansas City Power & Light, the Empire District Electric Co., and the Missouri Public Service Co.

Cox and Taylor Signed By KC Over Weekend

KANSAS CITY (AP) — Mike Cox, Iowa State linebacker, and Otis Taylor, flanker back from Prairie View (Tex.) A&M have been signed by the Kansas City Chiefs, the American Football League club announced Monday.

Both were selected in the week end draft. Taylor, 6 feet 3 and 215 pounds also was drafted by the Philadelphia Eagles of the National Football League. He caught 32 passes for 660 yards and eight touchdowns in leading Prairie View to its second consecutive undefeated season.

Coach Clay Stapleton of Iowa State described the 6-foot-1, 215-pound Cox as the "greatest competitor I've ever coached." The school retired Cox's jersey number 30, after his final game.

Dick Butkus Leaning To NFL Pact

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Illinois linebacker Dick Butkus apparently is leaning heavily toward the National Football League but the rival American League is leaning on Alabama quarterback Joe Namath.

The lure for Namath may be a salary-bonus package in the neighborhood of $150,000 and the possibility he might step in quicker as a first-string quarterback in the AFL.

Namath was made the No. 1 pick of the New York Jets in the AFL and the St. Louis Cardinals in the NFL. The Cardinals, however, have one of the best young quarterbacks in the league, Charley Johnson. The Jets have Dick Wood, an inconsistent performer.

Webb Ewbank, coach of the Jets, said Monday that Namath has "the potential of being another Johnny Unitas."

Ewbank should know. He unveiled Unitas at Baltimore.

"We want this boy real bad," said Jets owner Sonny Werblin. "And we plan to get him."

Butkus, meanwhile, said "I think I'll go with the Bears. I'll probably sign sometime during the week. I am confident of playing pro although I know I will have trouble. I hope Bill George sticks around for a few more years. I wouldn't mind playing behind him."

Butkus was the No. 1 pick of Chicago and taken in the AFL on the second round by the Denver Broncos.

The AFL defeated the NFL 8-1 in signings Monday with the Buffalo Bills getting the big jump by signing five, including their No. 3 pick, Villanova tackle Al Atkinson.

The Bills also signed Floyd Hudlow, Arizona defensive back and a No. 10 selection; two 12th-round choices — Auburn tackle Chuck Hurston and Wichita halfback Pete Mills — plus one of last year's futures, Notre Dame end Paul Costa.

Buffalo previously had signed its No. 1 selection—Ohio State tackle Jim Davidson.

The Kansas City Chiefs signed Iowa State linebacker Mike Cox and Otis Taylor, a flanker from Prairie View A&M. Denver signed Miller Farr, Wichita fullback and the Broncos' top future choice.

The Green Bay Packers put the NFL on the scoreboard by signing Georgia Tech linebacker Bill Curry.

The Minnesota Vikings signed Dave Osborn, a back from North Dakota. Osborn was their 13th-round choice.

The San Francisco 49ers signed Fred Polser, a defensive end from East Texas State. Polser was drafted last year as a future on the 10th round. Polser had been a 14th-round future choice of the Oakland Raiders of the AFL.

BIG OR SMALL—DODGE WARRANTIES THEM ALL!

Turn that over on your speedometer! A warranty like this could cost the Dodge Boys a lot of money. That's why we do everything possible to insure you won't ever have to use it. At the factory and right at our dealerships, every effort is made to make your Dodge the best.

DODGE BUILDS TOUGH TRUCKS AND WE MAKE 'EM EASY TO OWN!

THE DODGE BOYS

Dodge Compact Van prices start at $2054.40 f.o.b. Detroit, plus state and local taxes.

HERE'S HOW DODGE'S 5-YEAR, 50,000 MILE WARRANTY PROTECTS YOU: Chrysler Corporation confidently warrants all of the following vital parts of its 1965 cars, for 5 years or 50,000 miles, whichever comes first, during which time any such parts that prove defective in material and workmanship will be replaced or repaired at a Chrysler Motors Corporation Authorized Dealer's place of business without charge for such parts or labor: engine block, head and internal parts, intake manifold, water pump, transmission case and internal parts (excepting manual clutch), torque converter, drive shaft, universal joints, rear axle and differential, and rear wheel bearings. REQUIRED MAINTENANCE: The following maintenance services are required under the warranty—change engine oil every 3 months or 4,000 miles, whichever comes first; replace oil filter every second oil change; clean carburetor air filter every 6 months and replace it every 2 years; and every 6 months furnish evidence of this required service to a Chrysler Motors Corporation Authorized Dealer and request him to certify receipt of such evidence and your car's mileage. Simple enough for such important protection.

Mixed Reaction For First Use of English In Masses

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
"I never knew until today the meaning of prayers I've been using ever since I was a little girl," said a St. Paul, Minn., woman after witnessing the use of English in a Roman Catholic Mass.

A middle-aged San Francisco woman, after going through the same experience, commented wryly: "This new Mass is like doing Shakespeare in modern English."

These were typical of the differing viewpoints expressed by some of the nation's 45 million Roman Catholics after attending Masses Sunday in which English was used for the first time instead of Latin in about half the service.

A cross-country spot check brought mostly favorable reaction.

Most of the English is prescribed for use in the people's responses to the chanting of the priests in the 17,500 parish churches spanning America.

The reforms were authorized by the Vatican's Ecumenical Council last Dec. 4.

"It's a terrific social act," said the Rev. Luke O'Connell of St. Anthony's Shrine, Boston. "The people are now able to see... what was hidden before."

The St. Paul woman, Helen Conrad, found the new Mass "very meaningful."

The San Francisco woman, who declined to give her name, preferred the full Latin usage, saying, "I'm a converted Catholic and we feel strongly about the old things."

The changes — including in many churches the optional practice of having the priest face his congregation instead of having his back to them — marked in large measure the end of an era that began 400 years ago. It was then that the Council of Trent established basic norms for the Latin Mass that became outdated Sunday.

"With the introduction of the vernacular," said the Rev. Ralph Gorman, editor of the Catholic Magazine, the Sign, "the people can participate intelligently... instead of murmuring a mumbo-jumbo of Latin, as incomprehensible to them as Hindustani."

A New York City parishioner speculated it will "cut down on daydreaming." Mary Gibbons, who attends St. Catherine of Siena church, added somewhat sternly, "It's going to force Catholics to do what they have been supposed to do all along — follow and participate in the Mass."

Sedalians Attend Job's Daughters Area Ball In KC

The annual Job's Daughters area ball was held in Kansas City Friday evening. Those attending from Sedalia were Pamela Price, honored queen-elect of Bethel 15 and queen candidate at the ball; Gayle Rose, honored queen; Joyce Blankenship, Beverly Morris, Joyce Seelan, Jan Patrick; David Hofheins, master councilor of Sedalia Chapter 29, Order of DeMolay; Mike Rooks, Bruce Keeler, Danny Cope, Tom Trueman, Gary English, Francis Rudd, grand director of music and associate guardian of Bethel 15; Mrs. Nyra Price, guardian, Richen Price and Mrs. Bertha Welch, council members and John Welch.

Prior to the ball Pamela Price and Mrs. Nyra Price attended a tea in Raytown for queen candidates of the ball and their behtel guardians.

Mrs. Grace Becker, supreme guardian of the International Order of Job's Daughters, made her official visit to Missouri on Saturday evening at a combined bethel meeting in Raytown. Taking part in the meeting were: Pamela Price, protom honored queen; Kathy Beale, junior princess-elect; Judy McMullin, guide elect; and Janis Marshall, marshal-elect. They were accompanied by Mrs. Nyra Price, guardian.

A regular meeting of Job's Daughters Line Club was held in Raytown Sunday afternoon. Pamela Price, Line Club treasurer, was elected vice-president. Others attending the meeting were: Gayle Rose, honored queen; Kathy Beale, junior princess-elect; Judy McMullin, guide elect; and Janis Marshall, marshal-elect. They were accompanied by Mrs. Nyra Price, guardian.

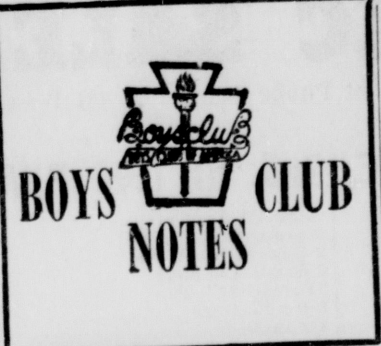

The speaker was introduced by Bernie Devine, November program chairman.

Omer West, president, announced the Rotary Christmas party for Rotarians and their wives will be held Monday, Dec. 14, at Hotel Bothwell. The Smith-Cotton Madrigal Singers will appear on the program. Ralph Walker will be in charge of arrangements.

Guests presented by P. E. Milster were: Allen Mensing, Rotarian from Excelsior Springs and Barry Wallace and Tom Trout, Smith-Cotton student guests. Tom Trout led in group singing with Mrs. Lillian Maynard at the piano.

In a well played basketball game at the club Saturday the Reds defeated the Blues by a score of 53 to 43. Going into the final quarter the score was tied at 38 all, but a fourth quarter rally proved the difference.

Danny Slocum has been added to the athletic staff of the Boys Club. He will assist in the basketball program this winter and coach one of the teams in the league.

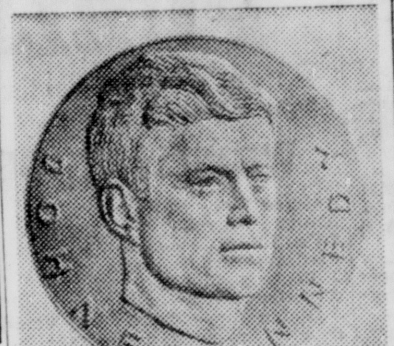

The iron men of the weight lifters made several good lifts during the past week. John Bryson did a prone press of 170. Jerry Parker had a press of 180, prone press of 205 a jerk of 210 and a back press of 155. Dave Guier did a back press of 155.

Gordon Strain, weight lifting instructor, has been on vacation and will return this week. In his absence Jerry Parker had charge of the weight lifting.

All four courts were busy either with a game or boys playing "Round the World," a game which has caught the popular fancy of the boys. Maupin, Finley, Parker, Christian, Dennis and Herring did some fine shooting in this game.

Quartet to Appear

"America's Number One Quartet" is a title gained over many years by the Blackwood Brothers Quartet, organized in 1934. For the past 30 years this quartet has travelled more miles, sung to more people, and sold more records than any other quartet in the world. On Tuesday, Dec. 8, they will make a personal appearance at the State Fairgrounds in Sedalia.

Here's a great new way to say "Merry Christmas" to your employees

If your company has 5 or more full time employees, you have a wonderful opportunity to give them a Christmas gift with real meaning and lasting value. Give them group membership in Blue Cross and Blue Shield.

You can make membership available by paying the full cost yourself or you can do as most companies do — make it available with the employees participating in the cost. Either way, you know they'll be protected against the rising costs of health care with the finest in health care prepayment at group rates.

Right now, in this area, almost 3000 companies make Blue Cross and Blue Shield available. Your firm is invited to join them. To get complete information without obligation call us at LOgan 1-8700, Extension 303 (Area Code #816). One of our service representatives will visit you at your convenience.

Just one more thing. Merry Christmas to you, too.
